4.0 Purpose and Scope

The purpose of this SOP is to outline, document and communicate rules and regulations for current, new and associate members, to help them to become more informed and more effective members in the ISF Shura General Body.

These policies and procedures apply to the ISF organization and all its entities, and activities.

5.0 Process Ownership and Responsibilities

The ISF BoT is responsible for maintaining and enforcing compliance by all entities and committees of ISF.

All updates and/or edits must be approved by the ISF BoT.

6.0 Overview of the ISF Organization

6.1 ISF Vision:

“An Empowered Muslim Community”

6.2 ISF Mission:

“To provide world-class quality services to the Muslim community by incubating organizations that are focused on positive social change”

6.3 ISF Official Website: “<https://www.islamicervices.org/>”

6.4 ISF Governing Model and Organizational Structure

Please refer to the ISF Constitution for a detailed description of the organizational structure and governing model.

6.5 ISF Guiding Principles

The key principle of ISF is to deliver valuable and sustainable Islamic services to the community. Therefore, ISF should:

- 6.5.1 Exercise sound judgment in making investment/projects decisions,
- 6.5.2 Apply best business and managerial practices to run businesses (e.g. KPI's, financial guidelines and discipline, budget oversight...etc.),
- 6.5.3 Strive to make each business self-sustaining and contributing to other projects, and
- 6.5.4 Diligently use surplus funds to strengthen the organizational mission.

6.6 Organization Structure

ISF Shura Members Rules and Regulations

The Organizational Structure of the ISF consists of the ISF Shura General Body, the ISF BoT, and the ISF BoD.

6.6.1 The Shura General Body includes all members of ISF. It is the supreme governing body of the organization and sets overall policies for ISF, and can overrule any decisions made by any committee. The Shura General Body elects the ISF BoT and ISF BoD.

6.6.2 The Board of Trustees ("ISF BoT") consists of a Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and Secretary who are elected from the regular members and manages the Shura General Body.

6.6.3 The ISF Board of Directors ("ISF BoD") consists of elected officers from the Shura General Body. ISF BoD manages all operations of the ISF organization, according to the governance model described in the constitution.

6.7 Membership

The membership of ISF comprised of Regular Members, Associate Members, and Honorary Members. The constitution describes rules, responsibilities, and accountability for each membership category.

6.7.1 A Regular Member is a community member who lives in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex (DFW); has been approved by the Shura General Body for regular membership and is maintaining membership requirements as described by the constitution.

6.7.2 An Associate Member is a community member who completed a membership application, paid the membership fee, and agrees to follow the ISF organization rules and governance as described by the constitution. Associate members are not eligible to vote in elections. Associate members are eligible to become regular members after 6 months, if nominated by the ISF BoD and approved by a simple majority vote at a Shura General Body meeting.

6.7.3 An Honorary Member is any person who substantially supported or is supporting ISF and is nominated by the ISF BoD and the ISF BoT. An Honorary Member is not eligible to vote in any election.

6.8 Requirements for Maintaining Membership

6.8.1 Payment of the annual membership fees.

6.8.2 Regular attendance of ISF Shura General Body meetings.

6.8.3 Failure to comply with attendance may result in the revocation of your ISF Membership.
